AEA reminds the public that although the Covid-19 epidemic is slowing down, it is still ongoing and should not be taken lightly. The public can participate in real property auctions more often by communication bidding methods, and avoid the risk of contracting the disease by visiting the auction venue less often. The public who goes to the branches to participate in personal property auctions should still strictly comply with all of the epidemic prevention regulations, wear masks throughout the process, and take personal epidemic prevention measures to protect the health of the citizens. The information related to the joint auctions held on the “first” “Tuesday” of every month, starting at “3” p.m., by AEA branches, and the public can visit AEA website (<http://www.tpk.moj.gov.tw>), or visit the official websites and Facebook fan page of AEA branches for the relevant information.
